BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

In Gorham, Maine a woman checking her laundry last week found an 8-foot-long snake wrapped around the clothes inside the washing machine at her home. It turned out to be a reticulated python. Experts suspect it was originally someone's "pet" and outgrew the family and was just released into the wild. If that tropical snake can survive in Maine, just think how it would thrive in Alabama!

A low-carb diet and a Mediterranean-style regimen helped people lose more weight than a traditional low-fat diet in one of the longest and largest studies to compare the dueling weight-loss techniques, or so was the buzz in the news last week. Digging deeper however, we found the study was funded by the Atkins Foundation, seller of books on low-carb diets. If a car company promoted a study which found their car to be "the best", we would scoff at their conclusions. Thus we suggest our readers follow this latest report with interest, but don't jump overboard in support of it.

Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac are holders of huge numbers of home mortgages. They were set up by the government but have public stockholders (for now). As most readers know, the housing market has tanked and both Fannies are in trouble. However the government is stepping in to help. . . we mean the American taxpayer is stepping in to bail them out. This is probably necessary at this stage of the game but by golly where was all this "help" when we were paying our own home mortgage?

Barack Obama is getting the heat turned up as we get nearer the November elections, just as we predicted. Last week there was lots of anguishing over the cover photo of the New Yorker magazine. It depicted both Barack and his wife dressed in Arab outfits and didn't go over real well with the talk show folks on the tube, nor with Obama. However he better get used to such as it will happen again and again between now and November.

Arguments against new oil well drilling "because it will take ten years" doesn't stand up under pressure. Our question to those who use this argument would be either, "how old will you be in ten years without the drilling" or "can we do it faster if we wait several years?" Now we are still wondering how someone can have the nerve to demand the Arabs pump more oil and yet cry about damaging the environment if we start the same thing in the good old USA! Of course the answer for it all would be alternate energy (wind, solar, etc) but no . . . that will also take ten years.

Anyone planning to go to Russia and work had better learn to use a computer. According to the country's president, "They either should learn or, as they say, goodbye," President Dmitry Medvedev said. "We don't hire people who can't read and write. Computer literacy today is the same." We remember when some American school teachers were told virtually the same thing and they got the message, became computer literate and most actually learned to like what they could accomplish with those computers.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

My husband, Jim Driscoll, has been a patient in Elba's hospital for the past 9 days. I don't believe he could have received better care anywhere.

The doctors, especially Dr. Dyess, the nurses and staff are professional, courteous and kind. The food is really good too. Our thanks and compliments to each person who did so much to help a very ill man. Sincerely,

Treva Driscoll

P.S.: How fortunate we are to even have a hospital with so many community hospitals closing long ago.

Dear Friends,

Thank you for the many heartfelt expressions of sympathy that you have shown to our family during this very difficult time. We are overwhelmed with the love that the Elba community and surrounding areas had for Tessa that was expressed to us.

For those who stopped along the way to the cemetery out of respect for our family, we would like to say thank you. We appreciate the support and prayers that you continue to give.

Please know that you are always welcome to come visit with us anytime.

Sincerely,

The Family of Tessa Lee

Summer Health. Fact or Myth?

As children, most of us heard lots of health advice. Unfortunately, some of it, however well-intentioned, was medically incorrect. See if you've ever heard - or believed - any of these common summer health myths.

• "Wait a half hour after eating before you can safely go swimming." This one seemed almost universally accepted when I was a child and is still believed today. The myth involves the possibility of suffering severe muscle cramping and drowning from swimming on a full stomach. While it's true that the digestive process does divert the circulation of the blood toward the gut and to a certain extent, away from the muscles, the fact is that an episode of drowning caused by swimming on a full stomach has never been documented. Neither the American Academy of Pediatrics nor the American Red Cross makes any specific recommendations about waiting any amount of time after eating before taking a swim. There's a theoretical possibility that one could develop a cramp while swimming with a full stomach, but a person swimming in a pool or controlled swimming area could easily exit the water if this happens. As with any exercise after eating, swimming right after a big meal might be uncomfortable, but it won't cause you to drown.

• "Sunburn will fade into a tan," or "You need to burn first before you start to tan." Sunburn is a burn and not a prerequisite stage for a tan. Sunburn will result in skin damage, redness, and eventual peeling. Any amount of sun exposure poses an increased risk for the development of skin cancers and premature aging, but sunburn poses an even stronger risk.

• "Dark-skinned people don't need sunscreen." People with lighter skins have less melanin, the pigment that absorbs UV radiation and protects skin, than darker-skinned people. While light-skinned people will be very sensitive to the effects of UV rays from the sun, those with darker skins can still be affected by damaging UV radiation. The American Academy of Dermatology recommends routine sunscreen use (with an SPF of at least 15) for dark-skinned people.

• Finally, there's the watermelon-seed myth. No, the seeds won't germinate and grow in your stomach if you swallow them. There is a very small risk of damage to the intestine (inflammation, obstruction, or a wound or tear in the bowel) from swallowing any small, sharp object such as a seed. A watermelon or other type of seed could potentially lodge inside the appendix and lead to appendicitis, but this is very unlikely to happen. The benefits of including fruit in your diet far outweigh any risks associated with swallowing seeds.

Tip of the Week

Blistering Truth! Don't pop a blister unless it's large and painful. Blisters help protect underlying skin while it heals.

SPORTS

VIEWS FROM....

THE PRESSDOX

BY RICKY MULARZ, SPORTS EDITOR

Melanie had had a very busy summer working six days a week at the pool, but after listening to her talk about the coming weeks it looks like it won't get any easier when she heads back to school for the fall semester. As a student ambassador at Troy she will help at summer graduation later this week, has three days of sorority rush coming up early next month and then will try to juggle being a full-time student with being an ambassador and a newbie in a sorority. Oh yea, she has also filled out several job applications in hopes of finding a part-time job. I just hope she remembers her first priority is to make good grades and to learn.

FOR WHAT IT IS WORTH....

 Coach Scott Rials and his Elba Tigers will get together for their second annual kickoff camp next week and he has put out the call to all Elba Tiger fans to give him a call to help out during the three day event. The players and coaches will work both on the field and in the weight room all three days, and will spend the night at school two nights in an attempt to bring the team closer together. Coach Rials reported he has already had several donations of food and drinks, but added he would welcome anything else fans and local businesses might want to donate to make the three-day camp a little easier to handle. Just call Coach Rials at 897-2266 if you can help in any way.

 Ronald McKinnon may have reached the pinnacle of his storied football career last weekend when he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The former Elba Tiger standout was a three-time All-American at the University of North Alabama and was awarded the Harmon Hill Trophy, the small college version of the Heisman Trophy. He was still the only defensive player ever to receive the award! While McKinnon went on to make over 1,000 tackles in the NFL as a linebacker at Arizona and New Orleans, it was his college career that earned him a spot in the prestigious Hall of Fame. Ronald may now live in Bessemer, but he will always be an Elba Tiger and a source of pride to everyone that lives here in his hometown.

 New Brockton's Dixie Belles All-Stars headed up to Montgomery last weekend to compete in the Dixie State Softball Tournament and at press time were still alive with a 1-1 record. The All-Stars opened the tournament with a wild 10-7 come-from-behind win over Muscle Shoals, but then fell 14-0 to Montgomery's AUM in second round action. This bunch of girls from New Brockton have played together for years in recreation leagues and as they have grown up have carried their winning ways on to the high school level. While the All-Stars will have a tough road to winning a state title, there is no doubt the experience will pay huge dividends and the girls will battle hard next year in an attempt to make it back to Montgomery to compete in the high school state tournament.

 The opening of the high school football season is only four weeks away and word from across the area is that the teams are all working hard and are anxious to get on the field. All the teams have worked throughout the summer on conditioning and have played in a couple of seven-on-seven contests, and now the fans are beginning to get fired up as they realize the season is just around the corner. Elba will find out in a hurry just how ready it is as the Tigers battle 3A power Wicksburg in a preseason game, then open the season against 4A Opp and defending region champion Cottonwood. Brantley will also join the fray early as the Bulldogs open against arch-rival Luverne, while Zion Chapel and New Brockton will meet in the opening week with bragging rights on the line. Hey, it looks like football will kick off with a bang this season.

 In closing.... Former Elba Tiger standout and assistant coach Jete Wise has moved again and is now the defensive coordinator at Slocumb High School. Coach Wise was a popular member of the Elba staff for several years, but moved on to SA Carroll, of Ozark, with Ronnie Cottrell, then after two seasons left Carroll and moved on to 6A Dordhan High. He told me on a number of occasions he wasn't happy at the 6A school and wanted to get back in a smaller school where the players and coaches had more of a one-on-one relationship, and when the offer came from Slocumb he jumped on the opportunity. Coach Wise still has aspirations to become a head coach, and with the experience he has gained over the years he will make a good one day very soon.

New Brockton All-Stars win opener at state tourney

The New Brockton All-Stars opened play Friday night at the Dixie Belles State Softball Tournament in Montgomery and rallied from an early 4-0 deficit to post an impressive 10-7 win over Muscle Shoals.

The District 6 champs from New Brockton had advanced to the state tournament with three easy wins at district, but found out in a hurry that things would be different at state as Muscle Shoals scored four runs in the top of the first inning to grab an early 4-0 lead. The first inning deficit could have been much worse, but Chelsey Holloway came in to pitch with the bases loaded and no outs and slammed the door on the Muscle Shoals batters to turn the momentum back in New Brockton's dugout.

New Brockton answered the early challenge and plated three runs in its first trip to the plate to pull within 4-3. A walk to Ebonee Muhammad ignited the early uprising, while Chelsey Holloway drove in Muhammad with a sacrifice fly. Sloan Cotter singled and later scored on a wild pitch and Emily Smith singled and later scored on a wild pitch as New Brockton got right back in the hunt.

New Brockton pulled even at 4-4 in the bottom of the second when Aubrey Hawkins walked and later scored on a fielder's choice off the bat of Abby Dunaway, but Muscle Shoals regained the lead in the third at 5-4 thanks to a walk and a key RBI single.

New Brockton trailed 5-4 heading into the bottom of the fourth, but rallied with two runs to take its first lead of the game at 6-5. A leadoff single by Jenna Freese sparked the rally, while Aubrey Hawkins delivered an RBI single and later scored as New Brockton moved on top 6-5 after four innings of action.

Muscle Shoals regained the lead at 7-6 in the top of the fifth. However, New Brockton again answered the challenge and pulled even at 7-7 in the bottom of the frame when Ebonee Muhammad walked and scored on an RBI single by Chelsey Holloway.

New Brockton scored three runs in the bottom of the sixth to take a 10-7 lead and this time was able to hold on and put the win in the book. A single by Aubrey Hawkins was a key hit in the sixth inning rally, while Abby Dunaway ripped an RBI double and later scored as New Brockton scored late to claim the exciting opening round win.

New Brockton ran into Montgomery champion AUM on Saturday morning and never challenged in a 14-0 loss. AUM jumped ahead early on a 2-run homer and rolled to the big win, which moved the Montgomery team into the finals of the winners bracket. AUM had defeated South Bibb 22-3 in its opener.

New Brockton was scheduled to play again in an elimination game on Sunday afternoon at 4:00 against the loser of AUM and Wilcox. Details of that game will be featured next week.

Grill takes home checkered flag at SAS

By Mark Chisum

Three weeks ago, Augie Grill ended Casey Smith's run of victories in South Alabama. Speedway's Super Late Model Viper Series, taking the win in the Diamondback 125, Grill returned for the Pro Late Model Viper Series Mojave 100, and again went home with the winner's check.

Mitchell took the early lead with Grill quickly moving up to second. Grill stayed on Mitchell's bumper until the first caution flew on lap eleven for a spin involving David Hodges and Max Greham. Two laps after the restart, Grill moved to the inside of Mitchell to take the lead and immediately put some space between himself and Mitchell.

During a 16-lap green period from lap 24 to 39, Grill opened up a comfortable lead over Mitchell, who was having to hold off Brandon Odum for second. Grill led Mitchell, Odum, Ronnie Sanders, and Hodges to the half way point of the race.

The caution flew again on lap 58, bringing the field together, but once the green flew, Grill again pulled away from his competition. Although there were no position changes, the racing behind Grill was intense, with Mitchell and Odum battling for second and Sanders and Hodges competing for fourth.

The Sanders-Hodges duel came to a head on lap 76, when contact sent Sanders spinning exiting turn two. Both were sent to the rear.

On the restart, Odum got past Mitchell for second, bringing Kory Ruble with him. Sanders had more problems three laps later, coming to a stop on the track with a flat tire, bringing out the yellow again.

Sanders returned to the race at the back of the pack, but quickly sliced his way back through the field. Ruble, driving for Royce Johnston, worked his way past Odum on the lap 80 restart, with Mitchell following him.

On lap 88, Ruble slipped and Mitchell, Odum, and Hodges got past before Ruble could get back on the gas. Mitchell got out of the groove on lap 90, and Odum, Hodges, Andy Pugh, and Sanders all went around the Texas driver. Hodges worked his way past Odum for second two laps later. With all the position changes going on behind him, Grill was able to gain an insurmountable lead.

In the Modified Feature, Kevin Peel grabbed the lead on lap two and cruised home with the win. Greg Melvin led the first lap before Peel took control. Melvin and Teddy Sasser battled for the second spot before contact sent Melvin spinning and both to the rear.

With the race going green the rest of the way, Peel eased away from Windham to take the win.

Janie Aertook the lead from Matt Culbertson on lap five and went on to take the win. On the fifth circuit, Ater dove to the inside to grab the lead. Teddy Sasser followed Ater past Culbertson, but couldn't keep up with Ater's pace.

Ater led Sasser to the stripe with Kip Whitehead following in third. In the Street Stock Feature, Jeff Rudd led flag to flag for an easy win. With the race going green all the way, Rudd stretched his lead each lap. Jody Henderson, starting fifth, moved into second on the second lap and chased Rudd all race but settled for second.

Jason Singletary had a long road, and off road, to Victory Lane in the Roadrunner Feature. Singletary ended up on the dirt bank off of turn two after avoiding several spinning cars on the initial start. Singletary returned to his twelfth starting spot with his bumper half way off and his deck lid covered with mud. Singletary was coming through the pack, moving into second on lap eight. Singletary took the lead three laps later. Singletary led Fowler, Charles Gardner, John Singletary, and Doug Powell to the checkers.

In the Coyote Feature, Aaron Nelson took the lead on lap 10 and went on to win. Slawson got by Smith on the final lap to take second.

Will Mack led flag to flag to win the CupLite Feature. Jack Whitte was able to keep Mack in sight, but never challenged for the top spot.

In the Mini Sportsman Feature, Jeremy Geddings came from the eighth starting spot to take the win.

Elba High School students can pick up class schedules beginning July 30th

Elba High School students can pick up class schedules and purchase parking permits for the coming school year July 30 - Aug. 4. The office will be open from 7 a.m. - 4 p.m. each day. The schedule is as follows:

Wednesday, July 30 - Seniors and Juniors; Thursday, July 31 - Sophomores and Freshmen; Monday, Aug. 4 - 8th grade

7th grade orientation will be Tuesday, Aug. 5, at 6 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Students and parents are encouraged to attend. Students will pick up schedules, establish meal accounts, and have a brief tour of the school. Lockers will be assigned to all students at no cost. Students must place book bags in lockers when the bell rings at 7:40 a.m. and will be allowed to get them when the 3 p.m. bell rings to end school. Students are reminded that all book bags should be transparent or made of mesh material that is 1/2 inch open mesh or larger.

Students are also reminded of the dress code as outlined in the Student Handbook. Students not in compliance with the dress code will have to change before they will be allowed back in class.

All shortalls must be tucked in pants (not rolled under) and belt/belt loops must be visible. Pants must be worn on the natural waistline. No athletic shorts or pants may be worn unless they have pockets (exceptions for athletic and/or p.e. classes). Clothing must cover abdomen, cleavage and back. Coats, sweaters, sweat shirts and jackets that are excessively long may not be worn inside the school building.

Shorts, skirts and dresses no more than three inches above the knee may be worn.

Administration will use discretion when making these decisions. The dress code will be enforced from the time students arrive on campus until they leave campus.

The dress code policy that deals with jewelry, accessories, shirts/shorts, other clothing related guidelines, and symbols/pictures/wording/tattoos will remain the same as the old policy.

Students who drive must register their vehicle in the school office. Parking permits are $10.

The first day for students is Aug. 7 (full day). They will meet in the auditorium at 7:45 a.m. for a brief assembly program and then follow their class schedule for the day. School will be dismissed at 3 p.m.

Treasury extends office hours to provide more constituent service

State Treasurer Kay Ivey announced this week that all divisions in the Treasurer's Office are now being staffed from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Friday, to provide additional opportunities for constituents to call regarding unclaimed property, college savings programs, and other Treasury functions.

"My staff and I enjoy serving the people of Alabama, and we take special pride in providing a live voice to answer the telephone," Ivey stated. "We are glad to provide these two additional hours each day for citizens to call and speak to a live human being."

At a recent meeting of the Coffee County Youth Leadership Steering Committee, 2008 (09) Chairman Stanley Walker (left) presented committee member Susan Stock (right) with a plaque in appreciation of her work to establish the program and also for her willingness to serve as Chairman of the Steering Committee for the leadership classes of 2007, 2008 and 2009. Walker said many others had worked hard and made many long hours for the program, and he sincerely appreciated their willingness to help and support the program.

Kindergarten Jumpstart planned for all three Coffee County schools

Coffee County Schools, Okemah, New Brockton, and Zion Chapel will hold Kindergarten Jumpstart on July 30-31, 2008.

On the first day all students and parents are to report to the school library with their beginning school supplies. The students will then go with their teacher to the classroom. The parents will remain in the library for an orientation meeting with the principal. When this meeting is completed the parents will go to their child's room for a meeting with the teacher. During the parent/teacher meeting, the teacher will explain her discipline plan, class schedule, rules, drop-off/pick-up procedure for students, answer questions, and collect lunch/money for the first week of school.

JUMPSTART will begin at 8:00 a.m. and conclude at 11:00 a.m. Transportation will need to be provided by parents for the children during this two-day session.

For more information on questions, please call Carol Mowery at 897-5016.

New teachers for the upcoming school year were among those present for the Tuesday, July 15, meeting of the Elba City Board of Education. Superintendent Danny Weeks introduced several new teachers to board members during the meeting.

bers a quick technology update. Ellis noted the school system has added 160 new computers, 57 projectors, 12 new whiteboards, 36 laptops, 60 printers and eight wireless access points. The schools have also added a second interactive video conferencing lay. This allows the high school to have students receiving distance teaching at the same time an Elba teacher might be conducting a distance teaching class with other schools.

The majority of the $450,000 spent on this state-of-the-art equipment came from state and federal grants.

Weeks told board members that work is nearing completion on new carpet and tile in the central office and high school office; new tile in elementary classrooms and painting of the high school gym. Volunteer staff members are doing the painting work.

to clear a record percentage of the reported cases of crime.

The council also approved a "Neil Grantham Day" resolution, which was presented to Mr. Grantham by Mayor James Grimes at the thank you event on the Square last Saturday.

The monthly financial statement shows for the first eight months of the year that total income overall is up over $100,000 but sales tax down by $28,000. Gasoline usage in Elba is apparently not dropping in spite of the high prices as the gasoline tax and gasoline excise tax are both slightly higher than projected.

A quick look at the expense side of the ledger shows the police, street department and sanitation department are exceeding their budgets in both salaries and in gasoline costs.

Everyone invited to attend Pine Level Community Fun Day planned for Saturday, July 26th

Fun and games will be the highlight of the day Saturday, July 26, in one Coffee County community as everyone is invited to attend and/or participate in the Pine Level Community Fun Day.

The "Fun Day" event will be held at Mt. Olive Baptist Church, located where Coffee County Road 355 meets Alabama Highway 141, in the Pine Level community. It will begin at 1 p.m. and last until.

According to event organizers, there will be water slides, arts and crafts, and games and contests for the entire family to enjoy. Also, participants are encouraged to bring their fruits, vegetables, jams, jellies, pickles, etc. to show, share or sell. Displays and exhibits are encouraged to "show off" quilts, other needlework pieces, wood-working projects or painting talents.

The day's events will conclude with a hamburger supper followed by entertainment by Broken Strings Bluegrass Band.

Whether a person wants to spend the afternoon, a few hours or just a few minutes, event organizers hope everyone leaves saying, "a good time was had by all."

For additional information about the Pine Level Community Fun Day, call 447-2433.

Kinston "landmark" moved to new location

by Brian Blair, Staff Writer

To those passing by all they saw was an old, metal building being moved from its location in Kinston, Ala. on Thursday, July 17, but to many residents from Kinston, including the building's owner, it was much more than that.

Many Kinston residents could be found last week watching the warehouse building as this local landmark was being moved. Some even brought their grandchildren along with them to share a little history.

"It is a landmark in Kinston," said Joan Stephens, owner of the building. "We didn't want to lose it, so we decided to move it to our land."

Stephens said that the building had apparently been built on railroad property in Kinston and the Illinois-based railroad company who owns the railroad recently ordered the structure be moved.

"We don't have any real plans for it right now," said Stephens. "We just didn't want to lose it."

According to Stephens, the building has been around since the 1930s.

"The building was built by R.E. Williams, who, at the time, owned probably half of Kinston," said Stephens. "It stayed in his family until the 1990s when I acquired the building."

When asked what the original name of the business was, Stephens stated, "that was before my time."

Stephens said she remembers it being a gravity fed grain bin and also noted one interesting fact about the structure of the building.

"The lumber used to build the building was actually milled right here in Kinston," Stephens added.

Stephens said the mill where the lumber was purchased was formerly located across the road

I made some suggestions about organizing and communicating with the constables," said Spicer. "I encouraged him to look at solutions and meet with the constables."

"The last thing I want to do is discourage anyone from public service," said Spicer. "I realize that other counties have abolished constables, but before we do that here, it's important to consider their responsibilities and the benefits of their service."

"Prior to the discussion at the county commission meeting, I had not been notified of any problems, but I will certainly take into consideration the concerns of the sheriff and the county commission," said Spicer. "I'm always reluctant to take away someone's right to serve in an elected position, but it's just as important to make sure that the position continues to benefit our communities."

"I hope that the parties involved can come together and find a way to address any problems and develop a strategy for working together in the future," Spicer concluded.

This warehouse building, considered a "landmark" by many Kinston residents was moved to a new location late last week. Several residents watched as the building, which has been around since the 1930s, was being moved.

(Highway 52) from where the building has been located for the past 70 years.

"I've been told that the lumber was good quality and have even seen prices on the Internet," said Stephens. "But I didn't want to lose the building."

Other residents in Kinston were very glad that she didn't either.

Margaret Cosby said she remembers when the health department would set up a clinic at the building each year to give children shots prior to the start of school.

"There were a few times when my sister, who was scared of shots, ran outside of the building and ran around it until I could catch her," said Cosby with a smile and laugh.

Another resident who spent the morning reminiscing was

Elba police chief completes 240-hours of training in Certified Law Enforcement Executive Program

"On behalf of the University Partnership for Alabama Continuing Education, and the Alabama Association of Police Chiefs, I take great pleasure in announcing that Chief Freddy Hanchey has completed 240 hours of training in the Certified Law Enforcement Executive Program. This is the highest level of achievement that is awarded through this program," said Belinda Blackburn, director of Continuing Education at Jacksonville State University and UPACE Partner. "Chief Hanchey is among the elite group of chiefs in the state who have successfully completed the curriculum and has tomers. Also, we have a new rewards checking program that we will launch in September that we know our customers will really like," said Guthrie.

In the current financial market, a few financial institutions are experiencing problems.

"TB&T is a strong, solid financial institution, with over $725 million in assets. We have a net income for the current fiscal year ending June 30, 2008 of $7.2 million and loan loss reserves of $6.9 million and capital of $51.1 million," said Guthrie. "It is unfortunate that problems of other financial institutions have been used to plant the seed that maybe all banks could be in trouble...nothing could be further from the truth - especially in the case of Troy Bank & Trust."

The Superintendent of Banks for Alabama recently stated that the overall banking environment in Alabama is healthy, and they are not looking for any bank failures in Alabama.

"TB&T now has nine locations in three different counties and will remain an independent community bank offering the highest level of customer service," said Guthrie. "Our tag line says, 'Troy Bank & Trust...the only bank you'll ever need.' We take that very seriously."

He said that is again asking the question he asked 14 years ago, "Can I help?"

Roy Baker.

"I remember when it was a cotton storage building. They used to store cotton and cotton seed inside of it," said Baker. "I even remember hearing that they used to load cotton onto the rail cars by hand."

Baker was also quick to point out where the cotton gin was located (across the street from the building's current location), as well as the train depot.

The building was moved by Hussey House Movers. Upon speaking with Jeff Hussey, he said they were just glad they could help.

The building was moved to a lot next to the Kinston Service Center, located on Highway 52. And, according to residents, as long as the building stays around, that is fine with them.

Mr. L. Wayne Bennett

A message from the President ...

As we begin a new scholastic year at Lurleen B. Wallace Community College, we do so with great satisfaction and pride in the community college we have become since the merger in 2003 of Lurleen B. Wallace Junior College and MacArthur State Technical College.

Much credit goes to Dr. Edward Meadows, the founding president of LBWCC, for his strong leadership in shepherding LBWCC during its infancy. Although Dr. Meadows has left us after 5 ½ years to become President of Pensacola Junior College, he leaves a college poised to accomplish great things.

Student enrollment reached record levels in 2007-2008. In order to accommodate these additional students, construction and renovation projects are continuing on all campuses and at the Luverne Center. We are focusing on strengthening programs and services for our students who plan to continue their education at universities. We are increasing the number and quality of technical program offerings and supportive services.

The Adult Education and Workforce Development programs are providing the critical difference for so many participants who take advantage of our services in order to obtain career opportunities for themselves and brighter futures for their families.

I invite you to become part of a thriving institution known for small classes, great faculty, accessibility and affordability.

L. Wayne Bennett
Acting President

Financial Aid & Class Attendance

An LBWCC degree is extremely affordable. Low tuition rate and various financial assistance programs are available (see college catalog online at www.lbwcc.edu). The 2008-2009 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is available online at www.fafsa.gov. Students planning to enroll for fall semester are encouraged to apply for financial aid at the earliest possible date.

IN ORDER TO RECEIVE A PELL GRANT FOR FALL SEMESTER:
A Student Aid Report must be APPROVED by the Financial Aid Office and on file by the day of registration before a student may charge their tuition, fees, and books to a Pell Grant.

If a student has completed the FAFSA Application and is selected for verification, all required documents must be received in the Financial Aid Office and corrections made, if necessary, by the day of registration. The Financial Aid Director may place the student on Purge Exempt and allow him/her to attend class, until the last day of drop/add as long as these requirements are met. However, tuition must be paid by the last day of drop/add or the student will not be allowed to continue attending classes.

A student receiving any financial aid is required to attend classes in which the student has registered. Attendance will be verified by the class instructors. A non-attending student will be administratively dropped from the class(es) which he/she is not attending. If all classes are reported for non-attendance, the student will be completely dropped.

For further information, contact the Financial Aid Office

Fall Semester 2008 Refund Policies

The student is responsible for completing the Drop/Add form and submitting it to his/her advisor or completing the Withdrawal form and submitting it to the Registrar.

DROP/ADD REFUND POLICY

The student may drop or add a class during the Drop/Add period ONLY. The total number of credit hours of enrollment after the schedule change may result in a refund of tuition (drop) or an additional charge (add). The student is entitled to a 100% refund of institutional cost (tuition and fees) if the completed Drop/Add form is processed on or before the last day of the Drop/Add period.

There is no refund due to a student who partially withdraws from school after the last day of the Drop/Add period.

STATE REFUND POLICY FOR COMPLETE WITHDRAWAL

In accordance with State Board Policy, a student who COMPLETELY withdraws from all classes is entitled to a refund of institutional cost (tuition and fees) as follows:

100% refund if written notice is received on or before the last day of Drop/Add (August 26, 2008).
75% refund if student withdraws on 8/27/2008.
50% refund if student withdraws from 8/28/2008 through 9/3/2008.
25% refund if student withdraws from 9/4/2008 through 9/10/2008.
0% refund if student withdraws on or after 9/11/2008.

The student may withdraw from a class or all classes up to the final date for official withdrawal (November 13, 2008). If the student completely withdraws from school, the date for refund is calculated as of the date the completed form is processed by the Registrar.

There is no refund due to a student who partially withdraws from school.

FEDERAL RETURN POLICY FOR TITLE IV FINANCIAL AID STUDENTS

The Federal return policy is to be used for a TITLE IV FINANCIAL AID student who COMPLETELY withdraws from all classes.

The return of Title IV funds is based on a formula, which determines the percentage of earned aid by calculating the amount of time the student has completed for a term. The percentage completed is calculated as days attended in the period (based on the official withdrawal date) divided by the total days in the term.

If the percentage completed exceeds 60%, the student has earned 100% of his/her Title IV financial aid and During the Fall Semester, a student will have earned 100% of his/her Title IV financial aid on October 27, 2008.

If the percentage completed is 60% or less, this percentage is applied to the total Title IV financial aid awarded to the student for the term and could result in the student having to repay Title IV funds.

STUDENT SERVICES

The offices of Student Services are open from 7:30 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 7:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. on Friday. These offices are located in the Jeff Bishop Center - Andalusia Campus (334-881-2279), Greenville Campus (334-383-6703), or MacArthur Campus (334-493-5360).

Elba man reported missing

Local Elba businessman and entrepreneur Pete Cash has been missing since early Monday morning, July 28.

His teenage son saw Mr. Cash leaving the family residence just after 7 a.m. Monday.

Mr. Cash is described as 5 ft 10 inches tall, weighing 195 pounds, with brown hair and blue eyes. He is 47-years-old.

Two eyewitness reports located him just south of Elba on Alabama Highway 189 around 7:30 a.m. and headed east on Alabama Highway 84 through downtown Elba a couple of hours later.

Two Elba citizens who know Mr. Cash well are positive they saw him driving in downtown Elba around 9:30 a.m. Monday. Each has assured Elba police they were close enough to be positive about their identification.

Cash was wearing a green golf shirt and khaki slacks and driving his personal automobile, a silver over silver (or tan) 2007 Chevrolet Tahoe with an Auburn Tigers tag on the front with the wording "Tigers Unlimited" and Alabama Vanity License Plate AU 85 AZL, which is also an Auburn University tag.

A missing persons report was filed late Monday evening, and the case is currently under investigation by both Elba and Troy authorities. The family has made an urgent plea with the public to provide any information about Mr. Cash's whereabouts to the Elba Police Department immediately (334-897-2555).

Wife Mary Cash said late Tuesday, "We are grateful for the prayers and concerns that have been expressed and ask the community to help us locate Pete and bring him home to his family and friends."

FIRE DESTROYS MOBILE HOME. Members of the Elba Volunteer Fire Department responded Thursday evening, July 24, to the scene of a mobile home fire on West Street in Elba. Upon arriving, they found the home fully engulfed in flames. The firefighters worked quickly to bring the blaze under control, but they were unable to save the structure. Fortunately though, no injuries were reported from the fire. The cause of this fire reportedly is being investigated by the Elba Police Department and Fire Marshal's office as arson is considered to be a possibility. On Saturday morning, July 26, the Elba Fire Department was again dispatched to the scene to assist the fire marshal in the investigation. While the incident remains under investigation, no charges had been filed as of press time this week.

Commissioners discuss budgets with sheriff

During Coffee County Commission meeting

by Linda Hodge, Editor

After working through their meeting agenda Monday morning, July 28, Coffee County Commissioners recessed their regular bimonthly meeting until the afternoon when they gathered to discuss the sheriff's proposed budget(s) for Fiscal Year 2009.

Upon reopening the meeting, Commission chairman Tom Grimsley said the purpose of the afternoon session was to look at the sheriff's department budget.

"Last year's budget (Fiscal Year 2008) was mighty fair," said Sheriff Dave Sutton as he began his remarks. "I have no complaints about it."

That being said, he did remind commissioners that fuel prices soared during the year, and he attributed the increase in fuel prices to be a major factor in the department having a projected coverage with the current budget.

Sutton said the projected coverage for the current budget (FY2008) is approximately $68,000.

While the sheriff said the major cause of the projected coverage is fuel prices, there are other causes for it as well including a bill owed to Williams Signs of Elba in the amount of $8,070.30. Sutton said this bill includes the cost for lights and striping on the new patrol units purchased this year. He said this cost was an oversight in the current budget and mistakenly left out.

"We need to look at getting these people paid," Sutton said. While the sheriff's department budget has a projected coverage of approximately $68,000, Sutton said the jail budget also has a projected coverage of approximately $1,700 in the current budget. Again, he attributed this mostly to fuel prices.

"A few months ago, the county administrator asked us to curtail spending, and we did at that time," Sutton said.

He said a majority of the curtailment came in training and travel. He added that he wanted to look at the current budget because it has an impact on the new budget.

With that said, the focus of the meeting shifted to talks regarding the sheriff's proposed

AN UNUSUAL WRECK took place Wednesday afternoon, July 23, at the intersection of Hickman Avenue and Highway 203 (bypass) in Elba. According to the accident report filed at the Elba Police Department, John Wayne Wilkerson, Kinston, Ala., was driving a log truck when he apparently was attempting to make a left turn onto Hwy. 203. He reportedly swung wide in order to make the turn, and one of the logs he was carrying shifted and struck the trailer of another diesel truck, driven by Dudley Toy of Los Angeles, Calif., that was traveling straight through the intersection. As shown in the photos above and to the left, the log came off the log truck and went completely through the trailer being pulled by Toy. The accident report also indicated the log truck had no flags on the rear of the load.

Two Coffee County residents facing multiple drug charges following arrest

Investigators and deputies with the Coffee County Sheriff's Department executed a search warrant Wednesday, July 23, at a residence in the northwestern section of Coffee County, and two individuals soon thereafter were arrested on multiple drug charges.

According to information released by the Coffee County Sheriff's Office, execution of the search warrant was at the residence of Jonathan Rex Hodge and Angel Marie Hodge, located at 9177 County Road 306. The search reportedly led to the recovery of a partial clandestine laboratory, a small amount of methamphetamine and several different types of drug paraphernalia. Officials said the investigators and deputies also found marijuana growing outside behind the residence, and weapons were recovered.

Jonathan Rex Hodge, age 30, was arrested on a warrant for sodomy - first degree, as well as, manufacturing of a controlled substance - first degree, possession of a controlled substance and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Angel Marie Hodge, age 22, was charged with manufacturing of a controlled substance - first degree, manufacturing of a controlled substance and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Officials also reported that two minor children were at the home at the time of the search warrant execution. Personnel from the Department of Human Resources were on hand to take control of the children while the search was taking place.

According to officials, the children were later turned over to grandparents. Both suspects remained in the Coffee County Jail as of Tuesday afternoon, July 29.

Howard seeking re-election to New Brockton's town council

Cal Donnia Howard, a resident of New Brockton, announces her candidacy for re-election to the Town of New Brockton, District 3.

Howard is currently completing her first term in that office and desires to continue her work on behalf of the people in her district and her town. Having been a member of the Council for these last 3 1/2 years, Howard said she is intimately familiar with the problems facing the town because of the dwindling tax base.

She said New Brockton has many good things on which to build: good people, good schools, good churches and good housing. She says the people need now to work together to bring in new business and economic development to increase revenues with which to operate the services needed to make New Brockton "a great little place to call home."

Howard said she believes, as do the other members of the council, that ultimately the Highway 84 Bypass will bring good things to New Brockton. She is working with the Downtown Revitalization Committee and desires to find ways to revitalize the town, to identify those things that can be improved, changed, and brought up to date.

Ms. Howard said, if re-elected, she will focus on using our resources wisely, improving appeal to new residents, adding diverse cultural/recreation opportunities, seeking out local economic opportunities and providing avenues for all citizens to become involved. With the support of the voters in District 3, Howard promises, "to diligently work towards New Brockton growing and staying a 'great little place' to call home."

During Elba City Council meeting Mayor James Grimes certifies two councilmen for another term in office

by Ferrin Cox, Publisher

Monday night the Elba City Council certified both Ronnie Hammond and Harold Spicer for a new term on the council. Both men had qualified to run for another term and were unopposed when qualifying ended July 15th.

Alabama law does not allow for write-in votes in municipal elections when the lone candidate is unopposed and their name cannot appear on the ballot. Therefore certifying Spicer for the District 4 seat and Hammond for the District 5 seat was in order.

City Clerk Wayne Grantham reported to the council that two trash trucks continue to collect trash from residential sections of town. He noted the recent strong winds downed more trees and/or limbs, pushing the clean-up effort further behind, but he felt they are again making progress.

Grass cutting on municipal property has also fallen behind due to equipment failure. However, this problem has been resolved and positive progress should be noticed in most areas of town, the clerk said.

He again cautioned motorists to be careful in the downtown area as the sidewalk construction continues.

Police Chief Freddy Hanchey cited a recent crime statistics report that pictures Elba law enforcement in a good light. The report on 2007 reported crimes shows Elba with 23% lower crime rate than 27 comparable population cities in Alabama.

Elba had no homicides in 2007; the lone reported rape case was solved, compared to an average of 36% statewide. Elba had five reported robberies and solved 60%, compared to a
